Chopsticks

Written by : Shun Usuda

Cited From : RIKA MUSEUM
<https://rika-museum.com/how-to-hold-chopsticks/>

In Japan, meals are mainly eaten with hashi, which are called "chopsticks" in English. Chopsticks are not only used when eating rice and side dishes, but also noodles, like soba and udon.

If you can hold chopsticks properly, you can fully enjoy Japanese cuisine.

If you can use chopsticks correctly, you should easily be able to grasp small objects such as beans or grains of rice one at a time.

However, there are a few taboos regarding chopsticks.

"Hashiutsushi" and "Tatebashi" are associated with funeral customs.

Hashiutsushi

Never pass food directly from your chopsticks to another person's chopsticks.

This resembles a custom at Japanese funerals when cremated bones are ceremoniously transferred to the urn.

It is considered the biggest taboo at the Japanese dinner table.

Tatebashi

You should not stick chopsticks upright into a bowl of rice, as it looks like offering to a dead person.

Member of MK KASHIYAMA Moscow

 Executive Director in Moscow office

What kind of work do you in charge?

First of all, this is communication with partners and the market. In short, 4P (Product, Price, Promotion, Place)

Is there anything you would like to work on or do in the future? In the future, I would like to open a warehouse in Russia and develop the brand in other countries. We're working on deliveries to Ukraine.

Is your work fun? Of course, there are many funny moments in the work. For example, one of my Japanese colleagues was popular among Koreans during an exhibition in Moscow and everyone spoke to him in Korean. It annoyed him terribly, but from the outside it was funny.

What has changed internally in company after joined? A lot has changed since I started working in the company. We made a brand book for the company, worked out a strategy for the correct development, we are investing in marketing, we changed the composition of the products and the quality of the work itself. Now we sell directly to our dear partners, we do technical seminars and this is just the beginning.

What are you addicted to lately? Recently, I have started jumping rope. In the office, in the evening I jump for 5 minutes, but I am sure that I can jump 30 minutes in the future.

 Staff in Moscow office

MK Kashiya work history. I joined MK Kashiya team in October 2018.

What kind of work do you in charge? I provide communication between the head office and distributors, participate in organizing and conducting marketing activities of the company, such as exhibitions, seminars and other events, I translate and edit articles about the company and our products for magazines, and also involved in logistics processes.

Previous job. A company distributor of automotive components for aftermarket.

Trigger for joining the company. I wanted to try myself in a foreign company since I graduated my university. I'm glad to have a chance to carry out.

Do you have a recommended / favorite country? why? I would love to visit Japan, USA and Australia. The last one was my dream-country since my youth.

What would you like to be in your work in the future? Want to learn more skills and never stop practice foreign languages. Maybe I'll start to learn Japanese?

What kind of work would you like to be involved in at this company in the future? I would love to be involved in communication and research in the Russian and CIS market.
